

Principal coordinate analysis of relative abundance of bacteria. PCoA was performed on the Bray–Curtis dissimilarity matrix. Colors represent the results of hierarchical clustering using Ward's method. Cluster number was selected as that which maximized the Calinski–Harabasz index. Arrows represent the original data projected on the new axes.